

Dual LL.M. Program

IE Law School / King's College of Law

IE Law School and King's College have created a Dual LL.M. exchange program that allows students to obtain two LL.M. degrees on an accelerated basis.

Students begin the program at IE Law School, where they will earn an LL.M. in one of the following fields:

- Asesoría Jurídica de Empresas (Spanish Business Law) www.ie.edu/maj
- Asesoría Fiscal de Empresas (Tax Law) www.ie.edu/maf
- International Legal Practice www.ie.edu/milp

Following the period at Madrid (10 or 6 months depending on the intake), students will travel to London where they will choose which type of LL.M. they want to pursue:

- Specialist LL.M.: Students specialize in a particular area by selecting a minimum of three modules from a specialist LL.M. program which are grouped into three broad areas:
 - Commerce and finance LL.M. (e.g. Commercial Law, Competition Law, Intellectual Property Law...)
 - European and international LL.M.s (e.g. European Law, Public International Law)
 - Law in society LL.M.s (e.g. Criminal Law, Criminology & Criminal Justice, Labour Law, Public Law & Global Governance...)
- Tailored LL.M (see Annex 1): students select freely from all available modules to match their specific areas of interest. On graduation they are awarded a general LL.M.

Admissions Process

The admissions process for the Dual LL.M. Program consists of two steps:

1. IE Law School Admissions Process

Complete the online application and present the required documents. You are able to work on or review your online application at any time, as the content will only become available to the Admissions Department upon submission. Candidates should accompany the admissions application with the following required documentation:

- A one-page curriculum vitae / résumé.
- 2 recommendation letters.
- Law Degree transcripts and diploma. We will require official academic transcripts of university studies, which must be translated into English or Spanish; however copies are accepted to initiate the admission process.
- English Language Proficiency Certificate (TOEFL, IELTS, Cambridge Certificate, Pearson. For more information about English Certificate, see Annex 2).
- Copies of other relevant degrees, certificates or accreditations (as applicable).
- Copy of current passport or Spanish ID card.
- 1 passport-size photo.
- Application fee of €120 to cover administrative costs. This amount can be paid by credit card, cash or bank transfer and is non-refundable.

Should you wish to send us original documents, you can send them by post to the IE Admissions Department:

Law Admissions

Calle Maria de Molina 13

28006, Madrid. Spain

or to the IE International Office closest to you. For a list of our offices please visit www.ie.edu/offices

Admissions Exam

Candidates must present the results of one of the following exams (only one exam is required):

- GMAT (GMAT reporting code 6XT-ZH-98)
- GRE (GRE reporting code 0108)
- LSAT
- IE Admissions Test: The IE Admissions Test is comprised of questions measuring analytical, logical, verbal and numerical capacities. Given that the exam is designed to test capacities and not knowledge of specific fields, it does not require special preparation. Candidates are allowed to use a calculator for the section that tests numerical skills. The exam also includes a personality test designed to compile a psychological profile of each candidate. To register for the next IE Admissions Test, please go to www.ie.edu/events

Interview

The interview examines the data provided in the application in greater detail and evaluates whether your profile will meet the demands of the program and add value within the class discussion and group work.

2. King's College Admissions Process

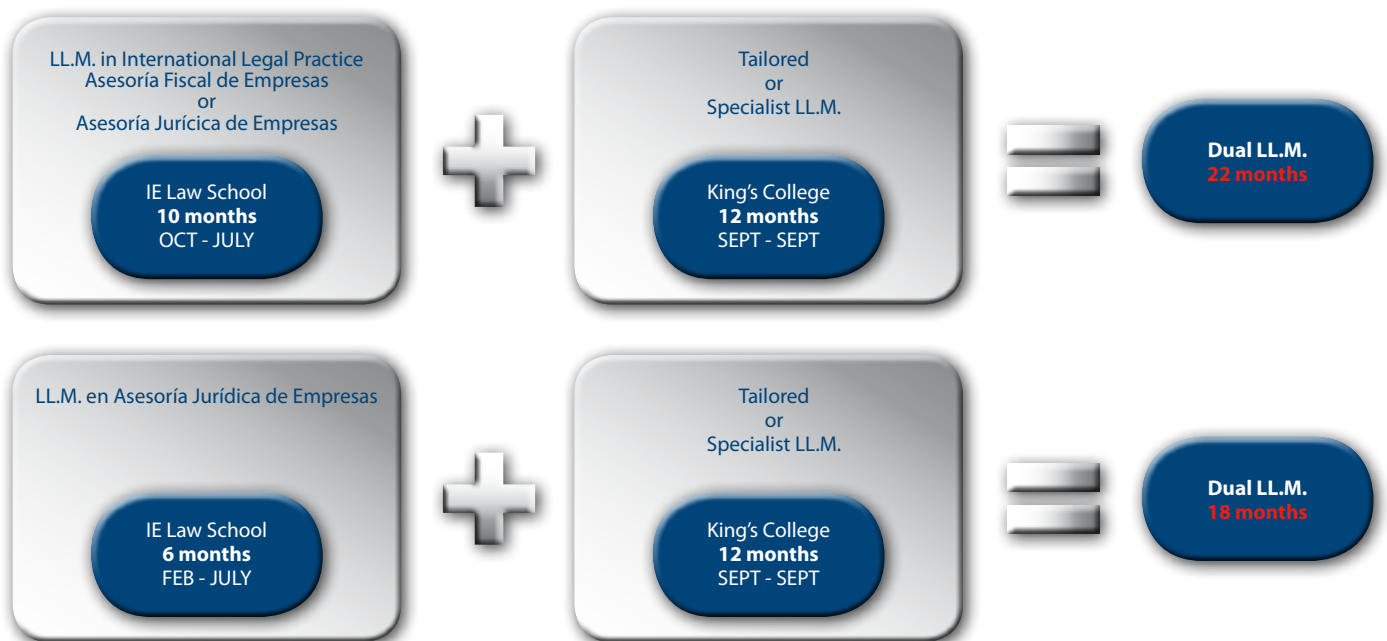

Once candidates have completed the IE Law School Admissions process they will have a pre-admission to King's College.

Candidates will apply to King's College once they have begun the program at IE Law School because their admissions process' deadlines go from October to March.

Information on how candidates should formalize their admissions at King's College will be given once at IE Law School.

Duration

Depending on the program and intake you chose at IE Law School, the Dual LL.M. program will have a different duration going from 22 months (10+12) to 18 months (6+12).

Fees

Candidates will obtain a 20% discount off the program fees at IE Law School and a 10% discount off the program fees at King's College. For more information regarding fees of a specific intake and program:
